

GLOBAL CLIMATE CHANGE WEEK

19 - 25 OCTOBER 2015

Heythrop is proud to participate in Global Climate Change Week, an international movement of academic staff, tailoring their lectures and putting on other organised events in the build up to the COP21, the UN Climate Conference in Paris. GCCW aims to engage the whole academic community worldwide in climate change reflection and action. Show your support by attending an Open Lecture (Heythrop students/staff only), attending a talk, or finding out about an environmental charity.

TUESDAY 20 OCTOBER

OPEN LECTURE:

'SPINOZA AND ENVIRONMENTAL ETHICS'

History of Modern Philosophy - PH312

Dr Alex Douglas

2.30pm-4.30pm, Brinkman room

OPEN EVENT:

'THE AGE OF STUPID' – FILM AND DISCUSSION

TH303 Special Event:

Rev Dr Martin Poulson, Dr Jonathan Norton, Dr Sean Ryan

2.30-5pm, Walker room

WEDNESDAY 21 OCTOBER

WATERBRIDGE OUTREACH TALK

Find out about this nonprofit organisation which gives children in developing communities hope for the future by nourishing their minds and bodies with books and water.

Peter Coughlin, 2pm, JCR

Followed by a Cake sale in aid of WaterBridge Outreach

OPEN LECTURES:

'ENVIRONMENTAL ETHICS AND ABRAHAMIC RELIGIONS (THE WATER CRISIS)'

Philosophical and Religious Ethics - AR303

Dr Anna Abram, 11.30am-1.30pm, Laishley room

'THE PANTHEISM OF MUHAMMAD IQBAL'

Contemporary Philosophy of Religion - PH201

Dr Elizabeth Burns, 11.30am - 1.30pm, Walker room

'GOD – REVEALED THROUGH HIS CREATION. OVERCOMING THE TECHNOCRATIC LOGIC OF THE MODERN WORLD PICTURE'

Fundamentals of Revelation - ST103

Prof Johannes Hoff, 11.30am - 1.30pm, Hughes room

'"FINDING GOD IN ALL THINGS": CREATION AND CREATEDNESS IN THE IGNATIAN TRADITION'

Spiritual Direction in the Tradition of Ignatius of Loyola - SPR510

Dr Gemma Simonds, 6-8pm, Hughes room

THURSDAY 22 OCTOBER

COLLEGE MASS

Celebrant and preacher: Rev Dr Peter Gallagher SJ

1pm, Chapel

EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Chapel, 3-5pm

Resources provided for silent prayer

OPEN LECTURES:

'THE PLACE OF HUMANITY IN THE CREATED ORDER'

Creation grace and resurrection - TH303

Rev Dr Martin Poulson SDB, 2.30pm - 4.30pm, Hughes room

'"A PLANET TO HEAL": A THEOLOGICAL NAMING OF THE ECOLOGY CRISIS'

Religion: Context and Crisis - PAS415

Dr Michael Kirwan, 2.30pm - 4.30pm, Walker room

FREE PUBLIC LECTURE:

'ENVIRONMENTAL COMMITMENT AND LAUDATO SI': JEWISH AND CHRISTIAN PERSPECTIVES

Pope Francis' latest encyclical is generating a great deal of interest, both within and beyond Roman Catholic circles, in the run-up to the UN Climate Conference in Paris this December. This event will reflect on the encyclical in the current context from two distinct perspectives, asking how it contributes to the development of the Catholic Social Tradition and looking at the contribution it can make to debates involving people of faith from a wider range of traditions.

Rev Dr Martin Poulson SDB & Jonathan Gorsky, 7pm, Loyola Hall

Light refreshments provided. Register at: www.heythrop.ac.uk/gccw

FRIDAY 23 OCTOBER

OPEN LECTURE:

'CONSTRUCTING AN ECOLOGICAL POLITICAL THEOLOGY'

Political Theology - ST308

Dr Michael Kirwan, 9.30-11.30am, Hughes room

Find out more at: www.globalclimatechangeweek.com

GLOBAL CLIMATE CHANGE
WEEK

October 19-25 2015
ideas, engagement, action

HEYTHROP
COLLEGE

Philosophy & Theology
UNIVERSITY OF LONDON